Dear Members of the Admissions Committee, Desirable School of Law:

I am writing to reiterate my sincere interest in attending Desirable School of Law. Aside from being a prestigious law school, and my first choice for matriculation, I am drawn to your program in _____ and the passion of the faculty that run this _____. Specifically, the [insert certificate program, professor's work, academic center, etc.] is something I find exciting because of my interest in _____.

In addition to my interest in [the above mentioned factors], I feel that I will bring a unique perspective to the Desirable School of Law community. Due to my [relevant past experience, unique background, etc], I will bring a [something that nobody else but me has] to the community.

I also wanted to take this opportunity to update my application. Since submitting my application in the fall, I have [earned a 4.0 last semester, was promoted to CEO, was awarded the Nobel prize]. In addition to that, I [started a volunteer job at the public defender's office, was selected by my professor to be a research assistant, found a cure for baldness].

Desirable School of Law remains my top choice. The programs offered fit neatly with my legal interests, [location of Desirable] is a place I can see myself living and contributing to the legal community. Further, the student body at Desirable is one that _____. In sum, I would be honored to be offered a place in the Desirable Class of [20__/whatever class you would be a part of].

Thank you very much for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Eager Applicant
