Adornment Policy

Main Ceremony (Alumni Lawn)
Vanderbilt generally abides by a “No Adornment” policy.

Cords, stoles, pins, medals of any kind are not approved to wear at the main ceremony. This includes but is not limited to any personal, academic or professional adornment.

The only approved exception is the Vanderbilt Kente Cloth presented through the Black Cultural Center each Spring. Any other version of a Kente Cloth is not allowed for use during Commencement.

Specific items NOT allowed:
- Personal adornments of any kind on cap/tam or gown
- Cords of any kind regardless of the academic or professional honor
- Stoles
- Pins or brooches
- Flower necklaces

Graduate/Professional Ceremonies
Please consult with your individual school for specific policies.
