The 2017 Chancellor’s Awards for Research on Equity, Diversity and Inclusion

These Chancellor’s Awards for Research will recognize excellence in research, scholarship, or creative expression that advance our understanding of equity, diversity and inclusion. The awards will be given for works presented or published on these topics in the preceding three calendar years. This year’s awards will be given for works that appeared in 2014, 2015, or 2016. Up to five awards may be given each year. All full-time faculty are eligible for consideration. Furthermore, research teams (two or more faculty) at Vanderbilt are also eligible for consideration. The team would be a single nomination and would share the award.

Nominations must include the following materials:

1. A brief letter of nomination indicating how the nominee’s research has advanced our understanding of equity, diversity, and inclusion and describing the significance of the publication or creative presentation for which the individual is being nominated. Please comment on the placement of the work (e.g., status of the publisher or performance venue). If the nomination is based on more than one publication or presentation, please identify the most important or primary work;
2. Current curriculum vitae;
3. A copy of the article or, in the case of a book, a significant chapter. For creative works or presentations, an appropriate archival record may be submitted.

Previous recipients are not eligible to receive a second award. The list of past winners can be found at http://vanderbilt.edu/faculty-development-diversity/awards/CRAEDI.php.

Complete nominations must be received by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, May 26, 2017.

Please send all materials to Vice Provost John Geer, 105 Kirkland Hall. Please copy these materials to the nominee’s dean and department chair (in those schools with departments). Electronic submissions may be made to lauren.rogers@vanderbilt.edu.